

COMPOSITION OF THE GOVERNING BOARD, SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE AND GENERAL MEETING

Members of the Alliance GOVERNING BOARD

Dr. Roman Kobets, Board Chairman

Dr. Roman Kobets is a well-known and recognized expert in analysis and formation of state policy of Ukraine. He has significant experience in cooperation with public authorities, was the adviser to the Verkhovna Rada Committee (2001-2006), Minister of Education and Science (2009-2010) and Prime Minister of Ukraine (2019-2020), now he is the Advisor to Chairman of the National Agency on Corruption Prevention. In 2008-2010 he headed Information Center of External Independent Evaluation, which provided communication support for the implementation of one of the most successful reforms in Ukraine – External Independent Evaluation (EIE). From 2015 to 2018 Dr. Kobets was the Director of the European Information and Research Center at the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine.

Roman Vasylovych is one of the main authors of Regulation of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine (ed. 2020), author of a number of methods for analysis and advocacy of public policy, its information support. He has authored and mentored a number of studies in the field of public health: the attitude of stakeholders to immunization, the information crisis around the "swine flu" in 2009 (H1N1), the creation of the system of accreditation of health professionals.

Roman Kobets received his PhD at the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine in 1996, he is the author of numerous scientific publications. From 1995 to 2015 he worked as a lecturer at the National University of Kyiv Mohyla Academy (Philosophy and Religious Studies departments), and since 2015 until now he has been a senior lecturer at the Kyiv-Mohyla School of Governance. Roman Vasylovych also teaches at the Ukrainian Catholic University.

Svetlana Antonyak

A pioneer of AIDS treatment in Ukraine, Svetlana is the Head of the HIV/AIDS clinical department of the Gromashevsky institute of Epidemiology and Infectious Diseases of the Ukrainian Academy of Medical Sciences. She has a long track record as the lead adviser to Alliance Ukraine on treatment, procurement and supply issues, and also consults to the Ukrainian PLHA Network, WHO, UN and other stakeholders. She played a leading role in the introduction and scale-up of AIDS treatment in Ukraine, took an important part in the development of training and preceptorship systems for AIDS clinicians in Ukraine and other countries of the region. Svetlana also supported the creation of the first civil society organisations representing and protecting interests of HIV positive people in Ukraine. As a trainer and resource person Svetlana is also involved in the current efforts to introduce AIDS treatment, develop non-clinical care and support services, and strengthen PLHA movements in other countries of the former Soviet Union. In addition, Svetlana is the author of some 85 scientific works on the issues of HIV/AIDS clinics and treatment.

Anya Sarang

Anya Sarang is an activist and anthropologist with deep expertise in drug policy reform, harm reduction, and gender programming. Since the late 1990s, she has dedicated herself to supporting vulnerable communities in Russia, including people at risk of HIV, imprisonment, and violence. As the co-founder and president of the Andrey Rylkov Foundation for Health and Social Justice (ARF), she has been at the forefront of integrating harm reduction services with gender-based violence programs, mental health support, and legal aid. Her efforts have extended across Russia and Central and Eastern Europe, focusing on strengthening public health resilience in authoritarian regimes.

Anya has worked extensively on issues such as HIV, tuberculosis, and hepatitis C, advocating for access to treatment and preventive measures for communities affected by harsh drug policies. She has led and facilitated numerous research projects and strategic litigation efforts, including over 40 cases brought to the European Court of Human Rights and UN bodies.

In addition to her work in Russia, Anya established Stichting SKOSH in the Netherlands in 2017, promoting health and human rights initiatives for marginalized communities. In response to the war in Ukraine, she co-founded the Community Center for Mental Health and Harm Reduction in Tbilisi, Georgia, providing critical support to people who escaped military service and political oppression in Russia.

Her and her team work has been recognized globally, including two International Rolleston Awards for contributions to harm reduction, the Crystal of Hope Award (2011) supported by UNAIDS, and the International Award for Action on HIV/AIDS and Human Rights (2012) from Human Rights Watch and the Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network. These honors reflect her unwavering dedication to advancing human rights, health, and justice for marginalized communities.

Andrey Kryvokorytov

CEO at Brain Source International, Chairman of the Board "Total HR" (www.totalhr.com.ua). Andrey Kryvokorytov is an owner and CEO of one of the biggest HR group of companies in Ukraine. He started his business from scratch and developed it into one of the most famous brand in B2B service industry in Ukraine. Andrey possesses strong skills in marketing and strategy development as well as strong leadership skills.

Anna Mikulitskaya

Anna Mikulitskaya is a financial expert with more than 20 years of experience in management positions in the leading international bank - Citibank - in four countries in Europe and Asia, in such areas as corporate portfolio management, product strategy of the bank, corporate governance, risk management, operations technological activity and customer service, brand positioning, work with mass media. Co-founder and director of the consulting company in the field of financial solutions FinEdvize, invited lecturer of the Business School International Institute of Management (MIM), Speaker of the project Stem is Fem.

Sergiy Fedorov

Sergiy Fedorov is known HIV activist from Odessa (Ukraine) who started his work with in early 2000 with Life+ and other NGOs in Odessa, and became one of the initiators and leaders of Network of People living with HIV. He has regional experience working in Central Asia with AFEW, and then worked as Executive director of AIDS Healthcare Foundation (AHF). Sergiy is currently with UNICEF focusing on the programs addressing COVID-19.

Members of the Alliance SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Jon Cooper, Chairman of the Committee

Jon Cooper is Principal Health Consultant at Itad, a UK based M&E consultancy, and has over 11 years of experience in international development, following a career in law across a number of sectors both in the private and third sectors. This included five years as Head of Legal, Risk & Compliance at the International HIV/AIDS Alliance Secretariat. Until 2015, Jon also served for four years as Country Director of Marie Stopes International's (MSI) Uganda platform (300+ staff and $16mIn annual turnover) and as MSI's Global Director of Evidence, Strategy & Innovation. In his current role, Jon was recently Deputy Team Leader and Project Manager for the evaluation of Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI) vaccines programme funded by the Gates Foundation, and is currently managing two DFID-funded projects, "Evaluation of DFID-CHAI Market-Shaping for Access to Safe, Effective and Affordable Health Commodities" and "Prevention of Violence against Women and Girls Through Sport". He is also currently Project Director of a large complex evaluation of the Gates and CIFF funded Adolescents 360 multi country project to increase contraceptive uptake amongst adolescent girls.

Vadim Menzhulin

Vadim has an academic rank of associate professor (2005), being a senior Fulbright scholar of Harvard University (2000). He is an experienced and respected academic with an interest in the history of science (notably psychiatry), psychoanalysis and ethics. He has published more than forty papers and monographs and has edited books in his academic field. Vadim worked as a senior research fellow of the Ukrainian Institute for Social Research, where he also headed the Crisis Family Centre and participated in reforming the state network of social support centers.

Natalia Sannikova

Natalia has been working as Financial Director of the International Renaissance Foundation (Soros Foundation) since 2001. She has extensive experience in financial management and accounting standards for non-for profit organisation in Ukraine. She has twenty years' experience in accounting in both the private and voluntary sectors and well as the background in electronic and systems engineering.

James Hart

James is a founding partner of Hillmont Partners, a Ukrainian law firm, that specializes in corporate litigation and M&A. He began his career in Ultra High Net Worth private banking as a relationship manager for Russia / CIS in Standard Bank Plc's Family Office team in London. From 2011 to 2015 he was a member of the management board of one of the largest alcohol producers in Russia/CIS. He is a board member of a number of European companies. James was educated at Eton College and then Durham University where he graduated with First Class Honors in Russian and French. He is an Executive MBA candidate at London Business School.

Viacheslav Chumakov

Viacheslav is the finance professional, having a master degree in economy, holding an ACCA membership and more than a decade of professional experience. He is the CFA candidate, passing his first exam. His solid background as a Vice President, Finance Director, Corporate Reporting Manager and Auditor for major firms and organizations, including Alliance for Public Health, Ukraine International Airlines, Anheuser-busch Inbev and PricewaterhouseCoopers has allowed him to gain in-depth experience in many areas of finance such as corporate finance, accounting, budgeting, banking, tax, treasury, internal controls and reporting functions. Equally important are his skills in business planning, operations, MIS technology, administration, and general management.

Victoria Obozna-Petrova

Victoria is an organizational development, Human Resources Management and management consultant expert with experience in non-for-profit and private sector. She runs projects in organizational design, strategy development, project management, remuneration system design, career and succession plans, performance management, and training & development systems. Certified DISC Thomas practitioner. Victoria has gained in-depth experience while working for KPMG firm as a part of People Services team, for ICF “Alliance for Public Health” as Head of HR and Director: Organizational Development as well as was the member of Ethics Committee and Alliance Accreditation Peer Review Team. She led on a number of restructuring processes, compensation system reviews and negotiation the overheads costs. Currently, Victoria is the Director of HR and Recruiting for the research and product development center Ring Ukraine. Ring Ukraine is a team committed to creating state-of-the-art smart home security systems having offices in Kyiv and Lviv.

Oleksandr Pertsovskiy

Oleksandr Pertsovskiy is a business executive with a track record in the Americas, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. Oleksandr spent 7 years with the world's largest logistics company, Deutsche Post DHL Group. He led projects to improve operational efficiency of various business units across the globe and restructure underperforming divisions, oversaw post-M&A integration programmes and initiatives to setup new businesses. Oleksandr also worked with DP DHL's largest customers, including world's leading pharmaceutical players, to redesign their temperature-controlled logistics networks and launch direct-to-consumer delivery channels for pharma products. In 2016 Oleksandr returned to Ukraine to drive transformation of Ukraine Post, one of country's largest state-owned enterprises with >73,000 employees and a network of >11,000 branches, where he took a position of COO and First deputy CEO. Since then, the state entity was transformed into a joint stock company with an independent Board, improved nationwide delivery timeliness from <70% to ~95% and is demonstrating >20% annual business growth, incl. >30% growth in international business. Oleksandr holds M.A. degree in International Economics and Finance from Brandeis University (USA) where he was a Fulbright scholar.

Members of the Alliance GENERAL MEETING

Slava Kushakov

Slava has been with the International HIV/AIDS Alliance since 2000 where he was a Senior Programme Officer and then Programme Manager in the Secretariat and, since January 2007, the Kyiv-based Regional Representative & Technical Adviser for the Eastern Europe and Central Asia Region. Slava previously chaired the Governing Board of Alliance for Public Health and recently stepped down from this position during the transition to Linking Organisation. He holds PhD (Ukrainian Academy of Science) and MSc (Imperial College, London) degrees and has played a pivotal role in the development of the Alliance for Public Health programme. He has substantial experience of working in non-governmental and governmental organisations, donor agencies, educational and research institutions. Author of more than 15 articles and scientific papers.

Dr. Roman Kobets

Dr. Roman Kobets is a well-known and recognized expert in analysis and formation of state policy of Ukraine. He has significant experience in cooperation with public authorities, was the adviser to the Verkhovna Rada Committee (2001-2006), Minister of Education and Science (2009-2010) and Prime Minister of Ukraine (2019-2020), now he is the Advisor to Chairman of the National Agency on Corruption Prevention. In 2008-2010 he headed Information Center of External Independent Evaluation, which provided communication support for the implementation of one of the most successful reforms in Ukraine – External Independent Evaluation (EIE). From 2015 to 2018 Dr. Kobets was the Director of the European Information and Research Center at the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine.

Roman Vasylovych is one of the main authors of Regulation of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine (ed. 2020), author of a number of methods for analysis and advocacy of public policy, its information support. He has authored and mentored a number of studies in the field of public health: the attitude of stakeholders to immunization, the information crisis around the "swine flu" in 2009 (H1N1), the creation of the system of accreditation of health professionals.

Roman Kobets received his PhD at the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine in 1996, he is the author of numerous scientific publications. From 1995 to 2015 he worked as a lecturer at the National University of Kyiv Mohyla Academy (Philosophy and Religious Studies departments), and since 2015 until now he has been a senior lecturer at the Kyiv-Mohyla School of Governance. Roman Vasylovych also teaches at the Ukrainian Catholic University.

Julie Saunders-Bondarenko

Julie has been the Director, Corporate Services, of the International HIV/AIDS Alliance since 1999 and has been instrumental in the growth of the organisation from a small niche player to the largest HIV/AIDS organisation in Europe. Her most recent initiative has been the creation of a new social entity, Pepal, which has been established to foster innovative partnerships between the private sector, academia and non-profit organisations in order to achieve sustainable social change. Julie trained as an economist with the London School of Economics (MSc) and Cambridge University (MA/BA), has an MBA from INSEAD (1990D) and is a qualified accountant.